Changing the Status Quo

Traditional marketing opportunities are disappearing or changing at a fast pace. Trade shows are on hold with an undetermined future for 2023. Many print publications are opting to release in digital formats only. A paradigm shift is unfolding before our eyes. But, the need for suppliers to the retail industry to place their products in front of retailers has not changed. And the need for retailers to find ways to make their stores relevant and a destination worth shopping in have never been more important.

No one can afford to wait to see what happens before beginning to plan their marketing future.

With these changes comes less opportunity to come together as a community. Visual Market Retail was created as an answer to that void. All of the voices behind this effort come from, and believe in the industry. This space was created to promote the community of retail.

VMR offers suppliers a cost effective, efficient way to showcase their products- 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. It also offers them a way to stay current, update offerings, share their voice and market through all available means as the market changes.

Most importantly, retailers have a place to come without leaving their desks if need be, to find products, education, news, trends and more.
