'WUTHERING HEIGHTS' TO LIFE

Bringing 'Wuthering Heights' to Life at Bloomingdale's Flagship

From January 15 through February 22, 2026, Millennium Signs & Display collaborated with Bloomingdale's to bring a haunting, Gothic-romance aesthetic to life at their famous 59th Street flagship store on Lexington Avenue in New York City.

Timed perfectly for the highly anticipated Valentine's Day season and the theatrical release of Emerald Fennell's cinematic reimagining of Wuthering Heights, Millennium Signs & Display executed the fabrication and production of the store's high-profile, dramatic window displays.

Working closely from the creative designs of Stefan Beckmann, these immersive window installations captured the moody passion and windswept atmosphere of the film, seamlessly bridging the gap between the busy Manhattan sidewalk and the themed Carousel pop-up experience running inside the store.
