WANZL

STANDS AND DISPLAYS

Stands and displays by Wanzl have what it takes to be superstars: they are a highly effective way of selling products at the POS. In the hotel industry, both ashore and at sea, they provide effective support for services involving suitcases and luggage. In cloakrooms, they ensure that clothing is stored safely. They are always ready to provide information. The diverse service advantages can also be put to use in clinics. Wanzl manufactures stands and displays predominantly from wire and metal, meaning a high level of stability for long-term use.
